Merging towards discovery

TODAY local artist, Jeffrey Baker's latest work, The Merging Towards Discovery, rests in his studio, but on Sunday it will be on its way to Sydney to take it place in its new home.

This new home is at Sydney's new art gallery, C2 Gallery of Fine Art in Silverwater, which Mr Baker was commissioned to create a major art piece for the entrance to the building.

Fittingly, Mr Baker has been invited to launch the opening before holding a solo exhibition from September 11 to October 3.
